I went up on Tuesday to work on the Gallagher site and came home Friday evening. The vibe was very positive as 2020 Fieldays were cancelled due to the Covid Pandemic and people certainly came in droves. Wednesday morning was very hectic! Interestingly, we did a lot of quoting and people were after information rather than buying straight away. As usual, the weather was foggy and drab most mornings, with sun, rain, fog and various temperature swings throughout the following days. It's a great chance to learn more about the products we sell through our store on a day by day basis.

The Winter chill has arrived finally after a very mild Autumn and June. We have good stocks of Winter clothing at really good prices. Keep warm and keep safe out there.

Cheers from Scott, Dean,
Angela, Debbie and Bruce
